

26th October 2023
14:00 - 17:00

Organized by Hosted by

Hybrid workshop on algae Harvesting and Cultivation in Europe:

Perspectives from European stakeholders on seaweed supply chains ...

©CEVA

Program

14h00 - 14h10 Welcome speech with Circalgae project presentation

KTH

14h10 - 14h20 Seaweed harvesting and cultivation in Europe: current status and key facts

Ronan Pierre, CEVA

14h20 - 15h25 1st Part on « Seaweed Cultivation and Harvesting in Europe »

Between preservation of the environment and socio-economic development of the seaweed producers: an evolving management framework for a dual challenge

Jehane Prudhomme, Regional Committee for Maritime Fisheries and Marine Farming

Scaling-up Saccharina and Ulva production on the Swedish West Coast

Göran Nylund, Nordic Sea Farm

Algolesko a producer looking for seaweed industry model

Mathilde Lemoine, Algolesko

Questions

15h25 - 15h45 Coffee Break

15h45 - 16h50 2nd Part on « Towards downstream uses »

Title to be confirmed

Georg Kopplin, Alginor

Utilising seaweed to solve high volume problems in the animal feed sector

Mark Williams, Ocean Harvest Technology

Harvesting vs cultivation of red seaweeds for carrageenan production

Cristina Fernandez Moure, CEAMSA

Questions

16h50 - 17h00 End of the 1st Webinar

AQUIMER